Words of Wisdom from Dr. Lydia Pettis Patton

1. Honesty is a quality in a leader that sets the tone for the organization and builds trust in the Team. By honesty, I mean telling the truth, being transparent, and not hiding behind situations that may be challenging to resolve in an organization.
2. Integrity in the workplace is modeled through a leader who chooses to do what is correct and accountable for one's actions. A set of core values follow integrity, honesty, trustworthiness, dependability, and sound judgment in your work.
3. Justice as a leader, you must exercise and exemplify fair judgment, show respect for humankind, and treat everyone equally.

"A leader knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way."
John Maxwell
